

You're cordially invited to attend the:

California Academy of Sciences' NightLife event in support of the San Francisco Seafood Watch Alliance

Thursday, June 11
6:00 - 10:00 pm
55 Music Concourse Drive
Golden Gate Park, San Francisco

NightLife is a weekly after-hours event at the Academy that combines music, cocktails, and conversation in a vibrant museum setting. NightLife on June 11 will feature special programming in support of the San Francisco Seafood Watch Alliance, which was designed to educate visitors and seafood industry insiders on the importance of commercially viable, sustainable seafood practices. Enjoy cooking demonstrations, watch a screening of "The End of the Line," and speak with other industry professionals about integrating sustainable practices into your own business.

Your invitation to this special evening includes:

- Free admission for you and one guest to NightLife
- An industry insiders' reception of wine and light snacks from 6:00 - 7:00 pm in the Forum Gallery
- An opportunity to attend a sustainable seafood panel discussion in the Academy Board Room at 7:00 pm. Speakers include Dr. Chris Andrews, Director of Steinhart Aquarium; Zeke Grader, President of the Pacific Coast Federation of Fishermen's Association and Executive Director of the Institute for Fisheries Resources; Shelia Bowman, Seafood Watch Outreach Manager; Thom Fox, Acme Chophouse and San Francisco Chair of the Chef's Collaborative; Paul Johnson, President of the Monterey Fish Market; and Kenny Belov, co-owner of Fish Restaurant, Sausalito, and co-founder of Fish or Cut Bait.

Attendance to this event is limited and will be first-come first-served. RSVP required to apope@calacademy.org no later than Monday, June 8. You and your guest must be age 21 or older and must bring valid IDs (no exceptions). This invitation is not transferable. To check in for this special event, please arrive at the business entrance in back of the Academy building on Middle Drive East.

About the Seafood Watch Alliance

The California Academy of Sciences, Aquarium of the Bay, and the San Francisco Zoo have formed the San Francisco Seafood Watch® Alliance aimed at raising local consumer, restaurateur, and seafood industry awareness of the importance of acquiring seafood from sustainable sources. Working together, the organizations provide regional support for the Monterey Bay Aquarium's Seafood Watch program.
